

Duration of programme

MPhil: Part-time, 3 – 5 years;
Full-time, 2 – 3 years

PhD: Part-time, 5 – 7 years;
Full-time, 3 – 5 years

Thesis Requirement

The PhD thesis should make a distinct contribution to the content and advancement of public health, and show evidence of originality either through the discovery of new facts or by the exercise of independent critical analysis. It should meet the professional standards of the discipline, be satisfactory in literary presentation, and suitable for publication. The examination for the degree is by assessment of the thesis and by oral examination.

Department of Community Health & Psychiatry

Section of Community Health
Faculty of Medical Sciences
3 Gibraltar Camp Way
University of the West Indies Mona
Kingston 7

Tel: 876-927-2476,
876-927-2893
Fax: 876-977-6346
E-mail: postgrad@uwimona.edu
Website: www.mona.edu.uwi/postgrad

University of the West Indies Faculty of Medical Sciences DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY HEALTH & PSYCHIATRY

SECTION OF COMMUNITY HEALTH

Master and Doctor of Philosophy (MPhil / PhD) in Public Health

MISSION:

To improve social, mental and physical health by enabling global solutions to Caribbean public health challenges, through leadership, innovative teaching, research and service.

